For technical reasons, the table top can be supplied in several parts to be fixed together.

Depending on the size, the top can be made up of 2, 4 or even 6 different parts.

When a table top is made up of several parts, these are screwed together from underneath the table to form the complete tray.

The "Working station" table is always with cut-outs for cable routing.

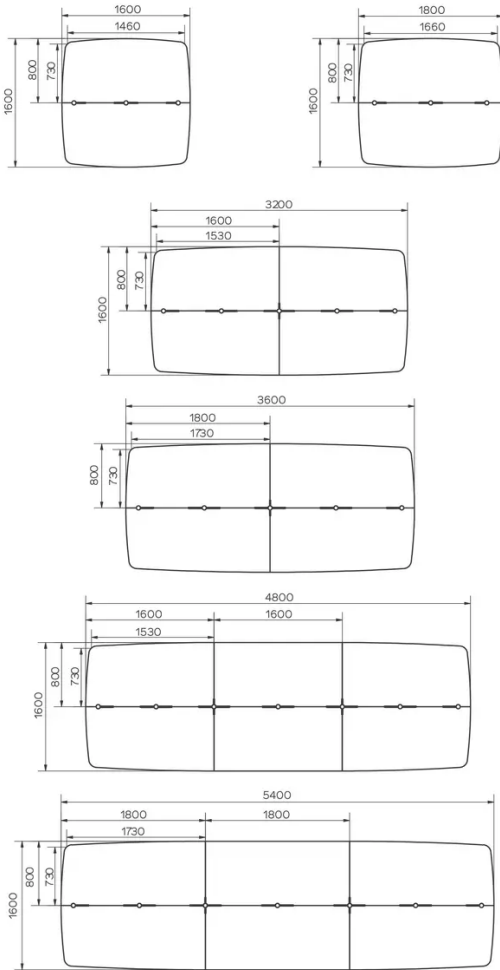

Depending on the size of the table, there are 3, 5 or 7 cuts. However, their location is defined and cannot be changed.

SECURITY

Our tables are heavy and require two people to assemble or move them.
